The Republicans have no right to pry around Governor Douglas' shoe factory to find out how many of his $3 shoes they can run down.

Many a man worries over meeting his expenses when he could save his worry by avoiding the expenses that insist on being recognized as they pass by.

We can now turn our attention to Russia's Baltic fleet and watch it with more than the usual amount of sympathy as it emerges into the Japanese lime-light.

Carnegie said he prayed for Roosevelt's election. His prayer was answed—by the voters. They believed that he had faith when he put up his money to back up his prayer.

Roosevelt's victory took in all of the points of the compass but the South. There was no magnetism down here for a needle that was doing a stunt around the circle for Roosevelt. Hoch, der South!

Judge Parker telegraphed his congratulations to Roosevelt. Of course the trusts will overlook this little mistake as to the identity of the real parties entitled to the congratulations.

The United States have granted 3,500 patents to women. The list would be tremendously larger if patents had to be taken out for the excuses invented by women as improvements on reasons.

Now watch the Republican party get busy with its ship subsidy scheme. The result of the election will be interpreted by Republican statesmen to mean that they can bilk the people for the benefit of the ship owners. Watch!

"We will now prepare for four years more of prosperity," declares a Republican exchange. Our preparation will consist of training our bread-basket to lessen its demands in accordance with the increased cost of the supply of grub.

When the judges of election know that there is money on the hip for the remuneration of those who know how to count votes for the party who wants them at any cost, we can't most always tell whether the vote is counted like it is cast or not. Some of those big Roosevelt majorities ought to be arrested on suspicion.

When the floating vote realizes that there is something doing financially during a political campaign, it encourages many voters to go adrift with the tide of floating suffragists. There ought to be some way to jettison the floating vote in deep water with life-preservers containing more than the usual amount of iron stuffing.

THE PRESTIGE OF WILMINGTON

Compares Most Favorably With Other Ports in Shipment of Cotton.

It is interesting and very gratifying in analyzing the statement published as to the movements of cotton last season to note that our port enjoys the distinction of being fourth in order in direct foreign exports. It is also worthy of attention that a comparison of exports with other ports shows that our port lost a smaller per centage last season when compared with the previous season than the other South Atlantic ports.

Norfolk exported in the season 1902-'03, 41,346 foreign and only 8,365 bales in 1903-'04, showing a loss in foreign exports of 32,981 bales or 78 per cent.

Charleston is credited with foreign exports for the season of 1902-'03 with 103,164 bales and only 43,066 bales for season 1903-'04—a loss of 60,098 bales or 58 per cent.

Savannah exported direct foreign in season 1902-'03, 965,163 bales; season 1903-'04, 807,919 bales—a difference of 157,243 bales or 16 per cent.

Wilmington foreign exports for 1902-'03 were 324,568 bales; for season 1902-'03 314,607 bales, a difference of 9,961 bales, or 3 per cent.

These statistics are worthy the highest consideration by the people of North Carolina and should be fully appreciated when it is recognized that but one firm is entitled to the credit which gives our port this high position in the commercial world.

Taken to Pest House.

Upon advices from the Onslow health authorities, a young white man named Ketchum was taken in custody yesterday afternoon by Capt. He has about recovered from an attack of smallpox, but will be detained a few days as a safeguard against contagion.

CANVASS OF THE VOTE

Result in New Hanover for Tuesday's Election Officially Declared Yesterday.

THE MAJORITY IS OVER 1,200.

Federal Point Township Returns Show That It Went for Republican National Ticket—Official Proclamation by Election Board.

In accordance with the general election law, the Board of County Canvassers for New Hanover met yesterday at 11 o'clock at the Court House and after an all day session in the grand jury room, completed the returns from the election on Tuesday and submitted them to Mr. G. Herbert Smith, chairman of the Election Board, who made the official declaration of the vote at the Court House door. The vote as declared is published elsewhere in tabulated form and it differs but little from the figures given in the same manner the morning after election. The Democratic majority for the National ticket is 1,163; for Glenn, Democratic candidate for Governor, who ran well ahead of the National ticket, 1,327; for Winston, 1,109, and the remainder of the State and Judicial tickets about 1,250, the total vote for each candidate being 1,301 and 1,302, except Grimes, who received 1,303, and Brown, for Associate Justice, who received only 1,297. The vote for Republican State and Judicial officers is not given in the tabulated form but it runs about with that of Harris, for Governor.

Patterson, for Congress, received 1,365, while Spears, Republican, received only 51, leaving a Democratic majority of 1,314. Emple, for the State Senate, and Boney, for the Legislature, received 1,306 and 1,311, respectively, while the vote for county officers ran all the way from 1,295 to 1,310.

It transpired while making a canvass of the vote that Federal Point township went for Roosevelt, giving seven of its votes for Republican electors and four for the Democratic electors. It was, however, strongly for the Democratic State and county tickets and some are inclined to believe that an error was made in making a transcript of the vote, seven having been counted for Roosevelt and four for Parker when it should have been vice versa. However, the official canvass puts the extreme eastern little township in the Republican column nationally.

The Board of Canvassers organized yesterday by electing Mr. D. J. Fergus, of Masonboro, chairman, and Mr. Gerrit Walker, of Harnett, secretary. The following members of the Board, elected from the poll holders at each precinct on the night of the election, were present: Messrs. Pierre Harris, F. T. Skipper and J. A. Everett, from the three precincts in First ward; P. Heinsberger, from the Second ward; A. G. Hankins, from the Third ward; T. G. Pickett, from the Fourth ward; Messrs. John E. Hewett and J. T. McIver, from the Fifth ward; D. J. Fergus, from Masonboro township; J. D. Woody and Gerrit Walker, from Harnett; W. H. Shearin, from Cape Fear, and W. H. Williams, from Federal Point. The canvass of the returns and the transcripts to be furnished to the Clerk of the Superior Court, the Register of Deeds and the Election Board were not completed until 6 o'clock. The Board then adjourned sine die.

The Cumberland official vote was announced yesterday. Glenn has a majority of 640 in that county and Winston 590. Sinclair's majority for the State Senate is 597 and that of McGill for the House is 634. The vote of the county was about 2,750.

W. L. I. COMEDY CLUB SCORED A BIG SUCCESS.

Production Last Night at Academy an Artistic Triumph—To be Repeated for Daughters of Confederacy.

A delightful success, both artistically and socially, was scored last night by the Wilmington Light Infantry Dramatic Club in a superb presentation of the clever society comedy, "Home Ain't Nothin' Like This," under the personal direction of Mr. James H. Cowan, at the Academy of Music. The success of the production was augmented in large measure by the appearance with the play of Hollowbush's Academy Orchestra, which was heard during the evening at its best.

With a cast of nearly twenty characters, the impresario chose exceedingly well in each and every instance, and it would be difficult to speak of one without inferentially detracting from another. Mr. Jas. H. Cowan, the jealous husband with a young and pretty wife, something of a matchmaker, essayed by Miss Mildred Davis; the pretty daughter, Miss Nellie McMillan, and her suitor, Mr. Jas. F. Post, Jr., as Victor Smythe; Katy, the maid of the household, by Miss Nora Angel; Mr. Thos. H. Wright, as Theodore Bender, elderly but with an eye for the fairer sex; his vigilant wife, with an eye for Mr. Bender, by Miss Belle Anderson; Evangeline Bender, the pretty and capricious daughter of the Bender family, by Miss Tallulah DeRosset; Christopher Dabney, a nervous, broken-down music teacher, by Mr. Wm. F. Robertson; the Bailiff, by Mr. C. G. McMillen; Langhorne, a sweet-mouthed individual with a few creditors, by Mr. S. C. Potts, Jr.; Mr. Louis E. Hall as one of those creditors; Fifi Oritanski, of the "Opera Comique," by Miss Hattie Taylor; Gretchen, her maid, by Miss Sarah Catlett; an unseen but often heard lodger in the "Home;" Alfred Hastings, an impecunious but resourceful nephew of the jealous husband, by Mr. Geo. P. James, and his faithful but rather over-enthusiastic protege, by Mr. F. Carley West; Augustus McSnath, an old friend of the jealous husband, by Mr. McRee Hatch—those were the people who figured in the comedy of errors, the galaxy of mistakes and a world of bright, humorous situations that gave the large audience not a dull moment during the entire performance.

It was announced from the stage, just before the last act, by Col. W. J. Woodward, that the comedy would be repeated next Thursday evening under the auspices of Cape Fear Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, for the benefit of the George Davis Monument Fund—a most worthy object, which with the merit of the production should attract a standing-room house.

SAILORS TRIED TO ESCAPE.

Leaped from Big British Tramp Steamer, Taking Desperate Chances.

Some excitement was caused along the wharf yesterday morning by the daring attempt of M. Mullen and L. Howard, two seamen, to escape from the big British tramp steamer "Anglo Canadian" as she cast off her lines from the Champion Compress for Liverpool, England. The men acted ugly on the way over and upon the arrival of the ship in Wilmington Saturday a week ago, the police, at the request of the captain, through the British vice consul, apprehended the sailors and locked them up at the station until the steamer could receive her cargo and be ready to sail for the voyage back, for which they had signed the ship's papers.

Mullen and Howard were put aboard the big ship by Policeman C. E. Wood at 6 o'clock yesterday morning but as the vessel was being taken out of the dock one of them made a long leap to the roof of one of the cotton sheds at the compress and a few minutes later as the steamer was about in midstream, the other leaped into the river a distance of 25 or 30 feet from the bow of the vessel. He swam ashore with difficulty and was captured at once as was also the one who leaped on the shed. The latter pretended to be hurt but an examination disclosed that he was "faking" to get to the hospital. The deserters were sent down the river on the "Sea Gate" and put aboard their ship before she passed out to sea.

TRYING FOR AN ALIBI.

Dan Teachey Murder Trial in Duplin Superior Court is Still in Progress.

ANTE MORTEM STATEMENTS.

Was the Prisoner Three and a Half Miles Away When Crime Was Committed and He the Victim of Foul Conspiracy?--Doctors Testify.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

KENANSVILLE, N. C., Nov. 10.—The Dan Teachey murder trial here is causing much interest. The State completed its testimony at 3 o'clock this afternoon and the defence is now examining a large number of witnesses by whom they expect to prove an alibi for the prisoner. It will require the balance of the week to complete the trial.

Wednesday afternoon on the examination of J. E. Dixon, the witness stated that the shooting was about 9 o'clock at night. On cross-examination he was shown a signed statement made before the coroner, immediately afterwards, in which he stated that it was about 8:30 o'clock when the deceased fell near his house and was pressed vigorously by defendant's counsel to state which was the truth. He fixed it positively at 8:30. This is regarded as important by defendant, who proposes to show that he retired at home 3 miles and a half distant at Shoofly time, which was 8:15 o'clock.

Dr. B. R. Graham testified as follows: I visited Robt. Rivenbark from time he was shot until he died. I first called about 11 o'clock, night of the shooting, to see him at his father's house. He was suffering with pain and I administered morphine and sent for Dr. Hatcher. He came and we made examination and found ball entered abdomen. After daylight we opened abdomen, flushed abdominal cavity and closed wound. Patient was rational when I called and I saw him twice per day till he died. Thursday night he was some better and Friday he began sinking and died that day. On Saturday morning I helped perform autopsy. Traced course of bullet to the right and slightly downward. It passed through greater omentum, pancreas and perforated greater vena cava and struck second or third lumbar vertebra. Death was caused by peritonitis and hemorrhage, which was caused by sceptic affection of vena cava. The cloth produced we took out of the psoas muscle in the back. Ball did not pass through back but lodged in muscles. I did not say anything to deceased when I visited him about the condition of his wounds. He remarked that he regarded himself as mortally wounded. I am not sure I held out any hope to him. He then stated about going to Easter Williams and said Dan Teachey shot him. Cross examination: Administered morphine immediately after getting to deceased. Repeated it every few hours and gave him strychnine. Morphine has different effects on different persons. It sometimes makes the patient talk unusual things. Witness says he took down ante mortem statement, and says did not have in it the statement that deceased recognized the voice and form of defendant.

Mrs. Susan E. Rivenbark testified as follows: When Robert was brought home he called me to him and said he was shot and was going to die. He then told me about going to Easter's to get hands to work strawberries. Said when he left Easter's he told her he was going to look for her to come Monday, and when he left some one hailed him and shot him and said it was Dan Teachey. Cross examination: Before leaving home that night he told me he was going to get help to float logs and said nothing about going to Easter's.

Luna Williams, a child about 11 years old, was then called by the State. She is the daughter of Easter Williams and lived at the place of the homicide. She attempted to tell about the shooting and to identify the prisoner and deceased, but got very much confused. She admitted that during the last trial and up until now she has been living with the mother of the deceased, who had often asked her if she had forgotten about the matter and talked it over to her.

Thursday morning court convened at 9:30 o'clock. Ann Johnson testified for the State in substance as follows: On March 4th, 1903, I lived with Gilbert Johnson, Easter Williams and her children. I was at home the night of the shooting. I worked at W. A. Heath's that day and came home and made on wood fire and we sat down. Deceased came inside of house and stayed about 10 minutes. Did not sit down. He started out and said "Let's go Easter;" she picked up cup and walked to door and when she turned and walked back to fire and when she got to fire pistol fired. Bob ran in and said "Lord, some one has shot me," and had his hand to his side. She said "Lord, Bob you know they ain't." Dan ran in and hit Bob and knocked Easter down. Bob went out calling Mr. Dixon. Dan went out and came back and said open the door, Easter. She told me to open the door and I told Lena to open it. Dan said he thought he held his hand too high to hit him and if he did, he was sorry of it. Next morning Melissa Williams and I went to see how Bob was and when we got there the doctors were cutting Bob open. When we came back we saw Dan and told him how Bob was and he left.

On cross and re-direct examination there was much detail gone into, the defendant emphasizing the fact that the inmates of the house closed the door immediately after the shooting and showed no concern about the killing, and that they did not tell who did it until they were accused of the crime and one of them was arrested. The defendant emphasized the point that Easter went to the door with a cup and returned to the fireplace and stood there until the shot was fired, with the evident purpose of waiting for the shot to be fired, and defendant contends that there was a fixed purpose to kill by some one else and that the defendant was not there at all.

Gilbert Johnson testified about the same as testified to by Ann Johnson, fixing the time of shooting just after the shoofly blew at Wallace and between 8 and 8:30 o'clock. He also testified that while Robt. Rivenbark was at the house on the night of the shooting he wrote Easter Williams a note about some whiskey and got up to leave and said, "come on, let's go, Easter," and she got up and started out, and came back to the fireplace, when a pistol fired. Witness said he went out next morning with Jim Dixon and Joe Stokes and found the bottle of whiskey near the house.

BIG EXPENSES OF A CIRCUS.

Norfolk Paper Tells How Show Leaves Some Money and Sunshine Behind.

After the performance of Forepaugh & Sells Brothers' Enormous United Shows in Norfolk Tuesday, the Virginian-Pilot, of that city, said:

The average patron of a circus, especially of a big circus, usually judges the amount of money taken in for admissions by the crowds inside the tents.

Very few, however, know how misleading this is at all times and places. Very few know or realize the immense number of free tickets a circus is obliged to give away for advertising and other purposes.

A few facts on this subject here follow: The country billing or advertising privileges are all secured for complimentary tickets to the show. These average 750 daily. In the town proper where the show is to exhibit, from 500 to 600 more are given away for window displays of lithographs and other necessary modes of advertising. In addition to these many more free tickets are given away daily for necessary purposes and to those entitled to them.

Thus it can be seen that what appears to the casual observer as a tent full of people frequently represents less than half of that number in actual paid admissions.

Little by little the public is beginning to realize that a big circus does not take all the money out of town, because the best informed citizens know this is not true. A big show is a great benefit to a town in which it exhibits, because it pays out hundreds of dollars daily for all sorts of necessary things. It benefits the newspapers, hotels, liverymen, grocers, butchers, feed men and many others.

Added to this, it draws vast numbers of country people to town, all of whom do considerable trading with the different merchants.

Many municipalties have at last awakened to these facts, hence the big shows are frequently requested by officials of various places to pay their town a visit, frequently offering free licenses and ground rent as an inducement.

As an educational institution the modern circus has no equal. Animals and wonders from all parts of the world are always on view, and were it not for the circus thousands of children of to-day and the past would know but little of the many rare and curious animals that inhabit various parts of the globe.

The modern circus is patronized by the best class of people throughout the country. It is a pleasant amusement and a day of relaxation to the toilers on the farm and in the shop, and where can they get as much for the small amount charged for admission?

Some time between midnight and daylight yesterday morning a burglar entered the residence of Mrs. P. F. Duffy, No. 10 South Eighth street, entrance having been gained through a door on the back porch. Mr. Charles F. Duffy's room was burglarized and some clothing carried off, in which there were a pocket book containing an amount of money, a pistol, a watch and some stamps. The clothes, after the pockets had been rifled, were found in an adjoining lot.

'Squire Bailes Removed.

'Squire Bailes, the notorious matrimonial artist who lives just "over the line" from Charlotte and who boasts of having married more than a thousand couples during his term of office, was ousted by Governor Heywood, of South Carolina, yesterday. Bailes was sending out printed literature giving his rates for marrying couples and offering to sell "A Cure For Love." Governor Heywood thought the literature unbecoming a justice of the peace and therefore removed him.

The Morning Star.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 11.

ACCOUNTING FOR THE VICTORY.

The STAR said after the overwhelming election of President Roosevelt "that all was over but the reasons." The reasons for the Republican success and the causes of Democratic defeat are now coming to the front. They are about as varied as there are opinions of what Democracy consists of. It is hard to find space for the explanatory editorials in the leading papers but we make room here for one view taken of it by the New York Times, the able independent newspaper which espoused the cause af Judge Parker and made a powerful fight for his election. The Times says editorially:

"Prosperity, a deep and widespread desire for its continuance, and a feeling perhaps not less widespread that the Democratic party is not yet 'fit to govern,' are reasons which sufficiently explain the very remarkable results of the election held yesterday in this country. In addition to the solid Republican vote Mr. Roosevelt has received throughout the entire North an immense Democratic vote, ranging from a few thousands in a State like Massachusetts to more than 100,000 in the State of New York.

"Judge Parker has received with few exceptions the vote of the Independents, the class formerly described by the term 'Mugwump;' he has received, we judge, the greater part of the sound money Democratic vote, together with the vote of those unswerving, old-fashioned Democrats, the bone and sinew of the party, who never vote anything but the Democratic ticket. The result is a victory that is not so much Republican as it is personal to Mr. Roosevelt, a victory more sweeping and remarkable even than that of Mr. McKinley in 1896, and comparable rather to that of Grant over Greeley in 1872.

"The discussions of the campaign, the search after issues and the talk about them, the moral arguments and the appeal to prudence and safety have been utterly wasted. The result was predetermined. The voters who have determined it were quite beyond the reach of any sort of argument or appeal. They were influenced by motives and they made up their minds through considerations that no discussion of issues could in the least affect. In the first place, the remembrance of what the Democratic party did in 1896 and 1900 counted for much. It would have been almost a political miracle had the people restored that party to confidence and to power so soon after the Bryan campaigns. Probably there was a considerable number of Democrats in whose minds Judge Parker's gold standard telegram could not efface the exceedingly unfavorable impression made by the discords and unsatisfactory compromises of the St. Louis convention. All the prominent sound-money Democrats, however, seemed to accept Judge Parker's declaration as a sufficient pledge and guarantee, and they supported him heartily. The unchanged and unchanging Bryan Democrats, however, had no liking for Judge Parker, for his gold-standard telegram, or for his views and principles. There was a Bryan defection all over the country. The vote tells the story. For instance, a press bulletin issued at 10 P. M. last night showed that in little more than one half of the districts up the State in New York Mr. Roosevelt's vote was 20,400 more than McKinley's in 1900, and Parker's was 10,300 smaller than Bryan's.

"Bryanite defection, however, does not explain Mr. Roosevelt's prodigious majority in this State. There isn't Bryan Democrats enough in New York for that. There are other classes of voters who for special reasons of their own, which for the most part have little or no relation to the principles of either the Democratic or the Republican party in this country, chose to cast their votes for Roosevelt.

"A victory thus won has its visible perils. A President chosen by this unconscionable vote has need of more than ordinary strength and equipose to resist the temptations natural to such an indication of popular confidence. We hope Mr. Roosevelt will bear in mind that the great vote which has come to him from outside his party, being easily detachable, cannot be counted upon to stand by him for all policies or in all contingencies. If his party keeps on in its present path and the radical Democrats once more come into control of their party, he may find that his friends of 1904 will by no means be his friends of 1908. In spite of any resolve he may form or express not to be the candidate of his party four years hence, it seems almost impossible that he should not be its candidate. Nothing but his own irrevocable refusal to run could take him out of the field, and it is to be remembered that his refusal to be the candidate for Vice President was revoked under controlling pressure. The Democracy of 1908, unless great changes take place in this country, will take the field under different leaders and with very different professions of principle from those presented in the campaign just closed."

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an advertisement of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50 cents, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

THE MORAL ISSUE.

One issue raised by Judge Parker during the campaign will never become obsolete and it will have to be settled by the American people sooner or later. That issue is whether money shall control the elections of the United States for the selection and election of their President.

Some days ago the STAR took the position that this matter was serious enough for Congress to take up and settle so far as the statutes can do it. We heartily endorse, therefore, the movement which is to be put on foot for legislation that will at least require publicity of subscriptions to corrupting campaign funds, and whatever additional safeguards can be thrown around elections in our country.

The Hon. Bourke Cochran, of New York has announced that within twenty four hours after Congress meets in December he will introduce a bill to embody a reform measure to put an end to such scandals as have been witnessed in the recent Presidential campaign. Such a reform has got to come.

Tom Watson said he paid his campaign out of his own pocket. Having no statement from him as to where the money came from that he paid out of his own pocket, is what makes us line up Watson with Roosevelt when it comes to answering a question that is irrelevant to and elusive of the main point. From witnesses like Roosevelt and Watson it is mighty hard to find out where the money comes from.

Col. William J. Bryan calls upon us to prepare for the fight in 1908. Please give us a chance to sponge off and pull down our vest.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The new Secretary of the Navy, Morton, mistaking his department for that of the Secretary of Agriculture, assigned the horse marines to the Mare Island Navy Yard.—Houston Chronicle.

—— Five Vice-Presidents have succeeded to the Presidency by the death of their superiors. Theodore Roosevelt has the distinction of being the only one of them to be elected President on his own account.—N. Y. World.

—— A local correspondent who was requested to wire early the result of the election in this State telegraphed yesterday: "South Carolina went Democratic to-morrow by the usual majority." Nobody will get a scoop on that correspondent.—Columbia Record.

—— It is quite evident that principles are taken but little into account by the people at large. They found the country prosperous despite extravagance of government and they could not be persuaded that a change would be advantageous. They were satisfied with present material conditions and considered them before all else.—Philadelphia Record.

—— It is a Solid North and a Solid South. Different reasons account for these sectional political conditions. The North could divide if it wished on industrial or any other issue, but so far as the South is concerned there is but one great overshadowing issue. We cannot divide as long as it remains, and whatever the rest of the country may do self-protection points out the only way for us. The North is not solid against us on that, but on economic, industrial issues'—Columbia Record.

— Whatever chance there may have been for the Democrats was thrown away at St. Louis. A party that has been eight-tenths wrong for eight years cannot regain public confidence at once by being eight-tenths right—particularly when on the vital question of honest money it was set right only under compulsion of its nominee. The extreme and unnecessary statement in the platform—"Protection is robbery"—branding as criminal a policy as old as our Government, hurt the Democratic candidate in the chief doubtful States, all of which are heavily interested in manufactures. Judge Parker was seriously handicapped, too, by the National Committee's choice of a Chairman.—New York World.

THERE IS ONE RATIONAL WAY to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.

OLD AGE BROUGHT NO INFIRMITIES.

To "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table."

Oliver Wendell Holmes, after eighty years of life had rolled over his head, declared that he was "eighty years young." So may every man and woman in Wilmington, said Druggist Robert R. Bellamy, "if they will take proper care of themselves, keep built up and their bodily tissues from wasting.

"I wish I could persuade every person in this vicinity who 'feels old,' whether they are so in years or not, to take our splendid cod liver oil preparation, Vinol. It is by far the greatest tissue builder and invigorator for old people. Vinol is not a patent medicine, but simply contains the body-building, strength-creating properties of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, and we guarantee that it will repair worn tissues, check the natural decline and replace weakness with strength.

"There are hundreds of old people in this vicinity who need just such a strength-maker and tissue-builder as Vinol. Their blood is thin and sluggish, but we guarantee that Vinol will enrich and quicken the blood and build up the system. It contains no whisky or strong stimulants, which have a bad after effect and weaken and break down, and we therefore wish every person who 'feels old' in this vicinity would try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if they are not satisfied." Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist.

TWINKLINGS.

— "Hear you've been speculating, old man. What did you realize?" "I realized that I was a blamed fool," replied the other man, sorely.—Cincinnati Tribune.

— "Well, I don't care," exclaimed the angry husband. "No man with any sense at all would approve of your actions." "But, my dear," calmly inquired the other half of the matrimonial combine, "how do you know what a man with any sense would do."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

— It was night. They (he and she) were sitting on the porch looking at the stars. "You know, I suppose," he whispered, "what a young man's privilege is when he sees a shooting star?" "No," she answered. "I haven't the slightest idea. There goes one!"—Chicago Tribune.

— Mother—"Have you informed Mr. Huggins of my decision that the gas in the parlor must be turned out promptly at 10 o'clock?" Pretty Daughter—"Oh, yes!" Mother—"How did he receive the information?" Pretty Daughter—"Oh, he thanked me, and said he'd be here at exactly three minutes to 10 hereafter."—Harper's Bazaar.

The American Farmer the Best in the World.

The American farmer is the greatest man in the world to-day because he is master of the soil—he is gaining in intelligence quite as rapidly as his products are increasing in magnitude. Our recent combines of capital in United States measured in money are enormous, yet such figures sink into insignificance when compared to the money, brain and brawn invested in agricultural industries. For instance, the farmers of Minnesota and Dakota have received $300,000,000 for their products in a single year. The farmer knows what Nature will bring forth for him from his experience in the past. He knows if certain seeds are planted and properly cared for that Nature will take care of the rest. In the same way you are master of your own destiny.

Providing your blood is in good order, it only needs a little effort on your own part to keep healthy and strong—rid your body of the poisons that are apt to accumulate and your system is ready to ward off the attack of the germs of disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes rich red blood—by increasing the number of red blood corpuscles. There is no alcohol in this great tonic to shrivel up the red blood corpuscles. As an alterative extract, made only of herbs and roots it goes about its work in nature's way. It stimulates the liver into proper action, and feeds the worn-out nerves, stomach and heart on pure blood. Used for over a third of a century it has sold more largely than any other blood medicine in the United States. More bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are sold to-day than ever before—that is a true test of its medicinal value after thirty-eight years of deserved popularity.

Dr. Pierce's "Medical Adviser" sent on receipt of stamps to pay for mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

Raleigh Post: The talk of throwing out two election districts in Mount Airy to elect Newland is puerile. A Republican house would seat Blackburn in a jiffy—even if he does reside in Mr. Kitchin's district and couldn't vote in the eighth.

— A dispatch from Monroe on Wednesday says: Will Blanch, a young white man, met with a fatal accident at Funderburk & Mangum's gin, near Dudley, yesterday. Mr. Blanch, who was a farmer, thirty-two years old, carried cotton there and accidentally caught his hand under the breast of the gin. His right arm was drawn in and completely torn to pieces and his jaw bone broken. Shortly afterward he died of the shock.

— John Mitchell, a young man about twenty years of age, who lives about four miles north of LaGrange met with a bad accident Tuesday afternoon while hunting rabbits in company with his brother. He leaned with his left hand over the muzzle of his gun, when the weapon was accidentally discharged, tearing the hand to pieces. The young man was taken to the office of Dr. J. M. Greene, of LaGrange, who successfully amputated the arm just below the elbow.

— Raleigh Post: Col. F. A. Olds, who has done such a valuable work for the State in the gathering of relics and the arrangement of the Hall of History in connection with the State museum, has made a very valuable addition within the last few days in the way of a sun dial from Fort Macon, it having been constructed there in 1828. The dial is loaned to the Hall of History through the Secretary of War. It is made of brown stone and bronze and has a regular twelve hour dial that marks the hours, halves and quarters.

— The Salisbury Sun states that rails are being laid for the new electric railway over Salisbury and to Spencer. Work on the electric light plant at Washington, N. C., is being rapidly pushed through to completetion. Seventy-five are lights of 2,000 candle power each, will be installed, and Washington will soon be one of the best lighted towns in the South. As soon after as practicable, the work of paving Main street will begin, and once more the town will have taken another step towards the goal to which she is pressing.

— A dispatch from LaGrange on Wednesday says the remains of Mrs. Evelyn Faircloth, widow of Judge W. T. Faircloth, were interred beside those of her late husband in Fairview cemetery this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Faircloth was the daughter of Council Wooten, who in his day was one of the best known and well-to-do citizens of this section of the State. One sister and one brother survive her. She left no children. The funeral services were conducted by Mrs. Fry, pastor of the Baptist church of Goldsboro, where Mrs. Faircloth had her membership.

— A dispatch from Winston-Salem on Wednesday says the returns from yesterday's election show Democratic majorities ranging from 50 to 348. H. W. Lindsay, for register of deeds, leads the ticket. Congressman Kitchin's majority is about 50. The Socialists polled about 150 votes in the county. Mr. Wm. Pegram, candidate for Governor and who resides in this county, lost his vote by failure to register. Of course, he blames the Democrats for it. He says that he registered under the "grandfather clause" two years ago and thought that sufficient. He admits, however, that he is not living now in the same precinct in which he last voted.

— At Elizabeth City Mrs. Jewell, a widow, who lives on Church street, shot and badly wounded some unknown negro Sunday morning just after 3 o'clock while he was attempting to force an entrance into her house. The negro made his escape, however, leaving a trail of blood for a short distance on the street. Mrs. Jewell's daughter was awakened by a noise at the window shutters, got out of bed, and went quickly into her mother's room and told her of it. She arose and secured her pistol and in the meantime the negro had gone around the house and had pulled open the front shutters, in plain view of the street, and was standing looking into the house. Mrs. Jewell approached the window and snapped the revolver in his face, but it refused to fire, the negro hearing it and quickly getting out of sight, only for a moment, however, for Mrs. Jewell, who was waiting at the window, soon saw the black head peering through the window again, and she promptly fired. She heard him stagger off to the rear of the house and then all was still. Too scared to go out and see the effect of her shot, she could only remain in a state of fear and nervousness until morning. The police believe that the negro was so badly shot that he will have to have a doctor or die, and that they will then discover his identity.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The cotton market opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of two points. Some demand from smaller shorts was evidently attracted by the forecast calling for rain more or less generally over the belt, and immediately following the call prices sold up two or three points. But at the advance there was a renewal of Wall street bear pressure and a decline of about four or five points from the best, followed by another slight bulge toward midday as offerings were withdrawn, during which January sold at 9.90 and March at 10 cents or a net advance of about two points. The close was steady as a result of room covering, with prices net one point lower to one point higher. Sales were estimated at about 80,000 bales. The difference between the low and high prices for the day was a matter of only about five points. Ports receipts for the day contrasted bullishly with figures and exports were again large, bringing the total for the season up to about 2,249,465 bales against 1,851, 725 bales last year.

C. H. Horton, printer on the MORNING STAR, residing at 109½ Dock street, says: "I had a rash on my body which had been bothering me for some time and often almost set me wild. I used lots of medicine and remedies but without relief until I procured Doan's Ointment from Bellamy's drug store. I found it to be most excellent. I do not believe it was ten minutes after I applied it before I had relief. I am glad to let others know of an effective preparation like Doan's Ointment proved to be in my case."

A KISS IN THE DARK

[Original.]

"It is a serious matter, Sarah, the attentions of this young Cameron to Carrie. He's as wild as a hawk."

"What makes you think so?" asked the wife.

"It's rather what I hear than what I see. They say he flits from one girl to another like a honeybee. Now, this young Lamkie is different. He'll soon have graduated from the Theological seminary and will settle down to his church. He means business. The other fellow is just amusing himself."

"Well, I don't know. Cameron is a sprightly young fellow, and I don't think there's any bad in him."

The rivals were certainly very different. Evan Cameron was a whole souled, hail fellow well met young man who usually made himself out much worse than he was. The consequence was that every one except Carrie Wood's father considered him a trifle better than he was. Farnam Lamkie looked with horror on all that was not positively righteous, consequently some people regarded him not quite so good as he pretended. However, both young men were unexceptional characters, and either would have made a good husband for Carrie Wood. Carrie preferred Cameron, but her father was so bitterly opposed to him that she dare not encourage him.

Evan was bright enough to see which way the wind blew. Indeed he was informed by a friend who was intimate with the Woods that Mr. Wood considered him a butterfly and Lamkie a man to be greatly esteemed. Evan was not one to rest content in his rival's appearing so much better than himself and set his wits to work to invent some method of getting ahead of the immaculate theolog. The problem was too difficult to be solved till opportunity came to his rescue. It happened in this wise:

Mr. and Mrs. Wood invited their own and their daughter's friends to an evening's entertainment, wherein a lecturer accompanied his discourse with stereopticon views, the subject being a trip to the Holy Land. Mr. Lamkie and Mr. Cameron were both present, Mr. Lamkie in high feather, the occasion being in his line. As to Mr. Cameron, with his usual self disapprobation, he remarked that he thought he would appreciate better a trip in the other direction. Before the arrival of either Miss Wood had listened to a lecture from her father upon Mr. Lamkie's excellence and Mr. Cameron's shortcomings. Mr. Lamkie, feeling that he could make himself interesting to the young lady of his choice by certain notes and comments as the description of the Holy Land proceeded, appropriated her early in the evening, taking a seat by her when the party were assembled in the large drawing room awaiting the appearance of the lecturer. In deference to her guests Miss Wood selected a seat farthest in the rear and at the left of the line. Mr. Cameron stood leaning against the wall on the opposite side of the room and near the front.

The evening was nearly spent, the lecturer was approaching Jerusalem and the end of his discourse, when something gave way in the stereopticon, and even that light which was permitted to fall only on the screen was suddenly extinguished. In ten seconds after the accident there was heard proceeding from the identical spot where Miss Wood and the young theolog were sitting a kiss. It was not a brotherly nor a sisterly nor a filial kiss. It was not a short kiss, nor was it very long, but there was in it a great deal of body—a kiss to set the young pairs of lovers in the room tingling. Mr. Wood on perceiving the accident to the stereopticon rushed to the electric button and turned on the light. But half a minute had elapsed before he succeeded in doing this. The sudden illumination revealed every person's head in the room turned toward the guilty couple. Mr. Lamkie was scarlet, and Miss Wood was rosy red. Mr. Cameron was observed standing in the position he had occupied when the lecture began and was the only person in the room who had the good taste to refrain from staring at the much observed couple.

The guests were shocked. Mr. Wood was furious and was inclined to order the offender from the house. That offender took the first opportunity to go to the host and hastened to assert his innocence. He was not believed by Mr. Wood, who turned his back upon him. Miss Carrie tried to laugh the matter off, while Cameron magnanimously asserted that any man sitting by so lovely a girl in the dark who didn't kiss her was a fool.

Mr. Lamkie after this episode was not in a position to press his suit for the hand of Miss Wood. He did not dare be seen with her for fear of exciting comment; indeed it called a blush to his face the moment he came into her presence when others were about. She manifested no displeasure with him, but this did not save him from being criticised for conduct at least unbecoming to the cloth. It was not remarkable that his rival, having the preference of the girl and since the disagreeable incident of her father—new converts are always most enthusiastic—should succeed in carrying all before him. There was a magnificent wedding, but Lamkie, a newly made clergyman, did not attend. Indeed his friendly relations with the bride were only restored by the persistence of the husband, who confessed to every one but the man implicated that it was he who had darted from one side of the room to the other, given the smack and barely got back to his position when the lights were turned on.

"But," he would add in conclusion, "what can be expected from such a disreputable character as myself?"

The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous.

— A Fairfield correspondent of the Elizabeth City Tar Heel, says: "It is the dryest here it has been since 1869. We have had but two good showers in eight weeks and they just layed the dust for a day or two. The lake is getting very low, so low in fact that it is said that the water on the southside of the lake is quite salty from the sound tide which runs into the lake through the canal at Lake Landing.

SENSATIONAL MURDER AT HAGERSTOWN, MD.

Frederick Easton Shot and Killed Lorenzo Kline in Cold Blood at the Home of Easton—Murderer Arrested.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

HAGERSTOWN, MD., Nov. 10.—A sensational murder occurred in this city at 6 o'clock this morning, when Frederick Easton, a horse dealer, shot and killed Lorenzo Kline in cold blood at the home of the former, where Kline was a boarder. Easton claimed that he found Kline and his wife together. After the shooting Easton was lodged in jail. Easton conducts a boarding house and Kline boarded with the family. He had been sick for several days, according to the statement of Mrs. Easton and several of the boarders. Mrs. Easton stated that early this morning Kline called her to his room to administer some tablets, and afterward, feeling drowsy, she reclined on the bed and fell asleep. Her husband, who occupied a front room, on awakening and failing to find his wife in bed, went to Kline's room and found the two asleep. He went out of the house quietly and crossed the street to the brewery and asked William Andrews, the fireman, to lend him his pistol, saying he wanted the weapon to shoot a mad dog. Securing the pistol he went back to the house and entering the room occupied by Kline and his wife advanced to the bed and leaning over his wife shot Kline in the left side of the head. The bullet entered above the left temple and passed through Kline's head, being imbedded in the right side of his skull which was fractured. The bullet afterward was removed by physicians.

Mrs. Easton was aroused by the report of the pistol and jumped up and ran from the room. Easton did not attempt to attack his wife and made no remark to her.

U. S. CRUISER COLUMBIA

Went Ashore Last Night in the Harbor at Pensacola, Fla

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PENSACOLA, FLA., Nov. 10.—The big cruiser Columbia, which is to convey Secretary of War Taft and his party to Panama, went ashore at 8 o'clock to-night in Pensacola harbor and every available tug of the port is now on the scene endeavoring to pull the war vessel into deep water. The cruiser was sighted off Pensacola bar just before dark and it was thought she would not come to anchor until daylight. Instead, a pilot was taken on board and she crossed the bar in safety after dark. At what is known as Horseshoe Bend she left the course, owing to the fact that some of the ranges had been destroyed by a recent storm. The cruiser is in a position just off the lighthouse, eight miles from the city, and although all tow-boats and naval vessels are endeavoring to move her the effort so far has proved unsuccessful. It is expected that she will be floated without injury at high tide in the morning.

ROOSEVELT'S ELECTION

Discussed in Political Circles in Mexico.

Newspaper Comment.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 10.—The results of the American election are much discussed in political circles. The Mexican Herald says:

"Definitely and in an unmistakable manner the American electorate stamps its approval on the imperialistic and expansionist policy of the dominant party, commits itself to the retention of all the insular territory acquired from Spain in both oceans; to the rapid pushing to completion of the Panama canal; to the building up of a great navy, and to the movement for strengthening the military arm of the government."

The papers generally speak of President Roosevelt as the imposing figure on the international stage of the world, of cosmopolitan education and wide and various accomplishments, and as an unique figure in the long line of American presidents.

"Of course I am going to return to the law business. I have several engagements under consideration, but I have made no decision yet. It may be that I shall first take a holiday trip, not for myself, for I don't feel the need of any; but for the benefit of Mrs. Parker."

PEACE PROPOSITION MADE TO RUSSIA.

It Resulted in Failure and Such a Presentation is Not Likely to be Repeated by Japan.

PUT FORTH UNOFFICIALLY.

Believed in London That the Time is Approaching When the Powers Must Take Some Action—U. S. Expected to Take Initiative.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Japan unofficially has made representations to Russia looking to peace. This action has resulted in failure and such representations, even privately, are not likely to be repeated by Japan.

Although the suggestion of a pacific settlement was made unofficially, it actually had behind it all the weight of an offer by the Japanese government. It was made direct to Russia. No power acted as an intermediary. The proposition was put forth tentatively and unofficially, so that the Japanese government would be in a position to deny any report that it was suing for peace. The failure of these direct negotiations, however, resulted in bringing intervention within a measurable distance. Foreign Secretary Lansdowne's plea for arbitration yesterday evening at the Guild Hall banquet is taken here to be a pointed suggestion to the United States and France that the time is approaching when the powers must take some action. It can be definitely stated that Lord Lansdowne made his speech with full knowledge that the Japanese will not resent a proposition looking to peace from the three powers, the United States, France and Great Britain. There is a definite impression here that the initiative will come from President Roosevelt, though the action will be joint.

In an interview regarding the foregoing Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister says:

"I would not be surprised to see the three powers named, or two of them, take the action suggested. Exactly upon what basis of a settlement peace could be secured it is at present impossible to see, but there is not the slightest doubt that combined representations, especially if led by President Roosevelt, would have a far-reaching result between two countries, one of which was thoroughly defeated. It is comparatively easy to make peace in this case, as neither side is thoroughly defeated yet. The prospects for the success of the friendly intervention have vastly increased. Since the commencement of the war the two nations now respect each other to a degree never dreamed of before they met in battle. That mutual respect is the most hopeful factor for peace. Japan does not want to go on fighting forever. Yet, even with all the victories won during this war, her statesmen would render themselves liable to be most seriously misunderstood, especially in Russia, if they openly suggested in the name of humanity some method whereby the war could be stopped. It would be altogether different, however, at this stage of the war, should a friendly offer, prompted by that sense of humanity which Japan cannot voice for fear of being misunderstood, emanate from the United States and Great Britain, but nothing can be done until the fall of Port Arthur."

As Viewed in Washington.

WASHINGTON, November 10.—Careful inquiry here fails to develop any change within the last four weeks in the attitude of this government towards the far eastern situation. There has been no move officially that could be construed as indicating a purpose by America to intervene between the belligerents. It was stated, however, several weeks ago by one of the highest authorities, that the President was only awaiting a suitable opportunity to do what he could to terminate the present war. He was restrained at that time and is now by the iron rule of the State Department that under no circumstances or conditions shall this government make a formal offer to bring the belligerents to peace terms unless both of them shall signify a willingness to avail of his good offices. That point has not yet been reached in this war. It is known that Japan, having been in full and free conference with the State Department here and with Mr. Griscom, the American minister at Tokio, for many weeks past, is willing to entertain an offer of good offices from the President or King Edward looking toward terminating the war, but so far no such intimation has come from Russia, and the slightest suggestion of an intention to urge peace upon Russia has aroused both private and official resentment on the part of Russian officials here.

The Feeling in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 10.—In official circles Lord Lansdowne's veiled suggestion that the Russo-Japanese conflict might be settled by arbitration finds an unfavorable echo. The sentiment prevails stronger than ever that Russia's prestige must be vindicated before the idea of peace can be entertained.

Hopeless as is the idea of bringing the war to a conclusion, it seems, however, that there are those in high quarters who consider that there is a bare possibility of bringing the conflict to a close on the basis of arbitration if such a proposition came directly from Japan.

Russia has announced again and again that no proposition from an uninterested power would even be answered, but that any proposition from Japan direct, no matter through what intermediary, would be considered.

A proposal from Japan to arbitrate the controversy would appeal strongly to Emperor Nicholas. He is extremely proud of being the author of The Hague conference, and in spite of the difficult position in which Russian military prestige would be left by a cessation of hostilities at this juncture, those competent to judge actually entertain the belief that such an offer on the part of Japan now would not be in vain.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Roosevelt's Plurality Over 25,000—The Legislature Republican.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 10.—The official returns for West Virginia are not yet in, but from the returns already received Roosevelt's plurality in the State is placed at from 25,000 to 30,000. The Republican State committee claims the election of W. M. O. Dawson, Republican, for governor, by a plurality of over 9,000. The Democratic State committee concedes his election by about 5,000. The legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican in both branches, the Democrats having only six out of thirty senators. The Democratic State headquarters were closed to-night.

Fusion leaders in Nebraska concede the re-election of Governor Mickey by a plurality which will probably reach from 7,000 to 10,000.

JAPANESE ASSUMED OFFENSIVE NEAR MUKDEN.

Russians Repulsed the Attack—Russian Commander at Port Arthur Has Asked for an Armistice

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MUKDEN, Nov. 10.—The Japanese to day assumed the offensive on the left bank of the Hun river and occupied three villages. The Russians, however, attacked, drove them out and again established the original lines of defence.

TOKIO, Nov. 10, 8:30 P. M.—Manchurian headquarters, reporting November 9th, says:

"On the night of November 8th, two companies of the enemy attacked our outposts, but were completely repulsed. All is quiet in other directions."

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 10.—Gen. Sakahoff, in a dispatch dated yesterday, reports the repulse of a Japanese attack, November 8th, on the Russian positions before Sinchin Pu. No fighting was reported to have occurred yesterday.

Affairs at Port Arthur.

TOKIO, Nov. 10, 10:45 P. M.—It is reported here that General Stoessel, commanding at Port Arthur, has asked the Japanese for an armistice the purpose of which is not stated. A confirmation of the report is unobtainable It is hoped here that General Stoessel will capitulate before the city proper is taken. The Japanese soldiers are angry and inflamed on account of the alleged abuse of their wounded by the Russians. They believe they will be murdered if captured. Under these conditions it will be difficult to avoid a massacre when the troops meet in the final combat.

TOKIO, Nov. 10, 8:30 p. m.—A report from General Nogi's headquarters before Port Arthur, dated November 9th, says:

"The enemy's military warehouse, situated in the northern part of Port Arthur, was bombarded November 6th, with heavy siege and naval guns. The bombardment caused a conflagration.

"On the afternoon of November 6th the magazine of an old battery on Sung Chow mountain was exploded by our shells."

A Costly Obstacle.

CHE FOO, Nov. 10.—Else mountain, according to Chinese, 120 of whom arrived here to-day from Port Arthur, is proving a costly obstacle to the Japanese. On the mornings of November 5th and 6th fierce assaults on the position were made by the Japanese, who were repulsed. During the second assault, a shell, soaring over the other hills from Palichuang, dropped on Else mountain and demolished a land mine and the mine controlling station, and exploded older mines.

The Russians were holding the trenches on the boundary of the mined section. Between six and seven hundred were killed or wounded. The Japanese not having reached the place, were unhurt.

Else mountain owes the best part of its strength to the peculiar topography of the surrounding country which prevents a direct artillery fire and does not enable the Japanese to advance trenches with the success evinced elsewhere. The Japanese advanced on it in both instances from behind distant hills, with the fullest force the ground would allow, but in the long distances which they were compelled to traverse in the face of machine guns their ranks were melted. Both times the Japanese broke the wire entanglements in places. One soldier with a leg torn off was seen trying to break the wires.

Russian Attack Repulsed.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent with General Oku cables under date of November 9:

"Last night the Russians made several determined attacks upon Lamuting and Sinchingpu, but were repulsed with heavy losses. The artillery laid the villages in ruins."

Occasional Skirmishes.

HUANSIAN, (ten miles south of Mukden), Nov. 10.—The weather to-day was warmer, with slight rain. Along the eighty miles constituting the front of the Russian army, everything was quiet, except for occasional skirmishes and artillery duels on the centre and left, where gunners fire occasionally for the sake of practice, so as to have the range should the Japanese take the offensive. Sometimes outposts indulge in fusiliades. When the Japanese jocularly display a white disk, indicating a miss, the Russian riflemen reply by raising a shirt on a bayonet. The Japanese are industriously continuing work under the cover of darkness, digging immense ditches into which to deflect the water of the Shahkhe river.

COAST DEFENCES.

Annual Report of the Board of Ordnance and Fortification.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The annual report of the board of ordnance and fortifications, headed by Major General Gillespie, shows that an annual amount of experimental work has been performed by the board during the past year and many devices of novel design have been tested. Only seven 12-inch guns out of the total of 100 guns contracted for in 1891 remain to be completed, and the last of these will be made by August 1st of next year.

The board renews its recommendations of last year for the immediate procurement of medium calibre rapid-fire guns for coast defence. The board also wants a reserve, as without a sufficient supply of ammunition the coast defence armament is useless. An abundant supply of ammunition for target practice also is requested and other measures are recommended looking to the instalment of range finders, search lights, telephone lines and other necessities of a modern coast defence system.

NOT ENOUGH DEMOCRATS.

Chairman Taggart Accounts for the Roosevelt Landslide Tuesday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic national committee, arrived here to-day after an absence of several weeks in Indiana. He went at once to national headquarters, where he had a long conference with Wm. F. Sheehan and Secretary Woodson.

Mr. Taggart was asked how he accounted for the Roosevelt landslide on Tuesday. "Oh, there were not Democrats enough" he replied. "Will the party be reorganized?" "There is no need of reorganization—what we need is more Democrats."

The Wilmington Symphony Orchestra has been reorganized under the management and leadership of the able violinist, Prof. C. C. SERIES OF FIRES IN NEW YORK CITY.

Three Persons Lost Their Lives, Twenty Injured and Many Overcome by Smoke.

SEVERAL THRILLING RESCUES.

Firemen Saved a Number of Persons Whose Escape Had Been Cut Off by Flames and Smoke—A Fireman Injured—Loss Small.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Three persons lost their lives, twenty were injured, nearly half a hundred were overcome by smoke, and an equal number are temporarily homeless, as a result of a series of fires in various parts of the greater city to-day. In nearly every case the fires were in tenement houses occupied by a large number of families and at least two of them are thought to have been started by incendiaries.

That no more lives were lost undoubtedly was due to the fact that the flames were discovered in every instance before they had made great headway and the excellent use made of life-saving appliances by the firemen. Life-nets, scaling ladders and other apparatus enabled the firemen to save many persons whose escape had been cut off by flames and choking smoke.

Nearly all the fires started in the lower parts of the buildings and although in no case did the money loss exceed a few thousand dollars, the dense clouds of smoke which swept up through halls and elevator shafts drove the panic stricken tenants to roofs and fire escapes. Many were overcome before reaching the outer air, but with the exception of three, all were found by firemen and carried out in safety.

A false alarm of fire also contributed to the day's list of injured. Workmen on the the roof of the American Cigar Comdany's factory, alarmed by clouds of smoke which came from an overturned tar kettle in the street, rushed into the factory where scores of girls were at work and with a cry of "fire" started a panic in which twelve of them were injured. One was so badly hurt that she was taken to a hospital.

The most serious fire of the day was that in an upper east side apartment house, in which three lives were lost, several persons were injured and many thrilling rescues were made. Forty-five families were driven from a big tenement house on Boston road in the Bronx, and twenty persons who had been overcome by smoke were rescued by firemen.

An explosion in the basement of a tenement house in Williamsburg created a panic among the tenants and the burst of flames and smoke which followed sent them to roofs and fire-escapes in search of safety. Many were overcome by smoke, but all were rescued.

A fireman was badly injured by falling three stories while fighting a fire in a storage warehouse on Washington street.

A DOMESTIC TRAGEDY.

Woman Dead at Her Own Hands—Husband Shot Himself With Same Weapon.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Because her husband had reproved her, Mrs. Katherine Green is dead at her own hands in Brooklyn, while the husband is dangerously wounded in a hospital, having shot himself when he saw the result of his words with his wife. George Green had criticised his wife for going out walking with another man and, without saying a word, she shot herself through the heart. Overcome with horror, the husband picked up the same revolver and shot himself. The tragedy was not discovered until late to-day when Green's employer sent to inquire why he had not come to work.

WARM WIRELETS.

President Roosevelt has decided to pay a visit to the St. Louis Exposition and will leave Washington in time to be in St. Louis November 26th.

Election returns show steadily increasing Republican pluralities and it now seems probable that Roosevelt's plurality in the popular vote will be in round numbers 2,000,000.

Nearly complete returns from Ohio show close to 250,000 plurality for the Roosevelt and Fairbanks electors. Only one Democratic congressman has been elected out of twenty-one.

Ten thousand congratulatory messages have been received by President Roosevelt. Notwithstanding their immense number the President has decided that each one is to be answered.

Governor James H. Peabody, Republicans, Colorado, concedes his defeat. Both sides are claiming the legislature and the result will be in doubt until the official count is made.

The steamer Finance, owned by the Panama Railroad Company, from Colon to New York, was brought into Savannah with rudder gone, by the steamer El Paso. She had passengers and freight aboard,

The battleship New Jersey, built for the United States government by the Fore River Shipbuilding Company at Quincy, Mass., was successfully launched in the presence of a large number of guests.

Judge D. Cady Herrick, the defeated candidate of the Democratic party for governor of New York, will leave to-day for an extended visit to Havana, for his health. Upon his return he will resume the practice of the law.

Sheriff Daniels, of Fayette county, W. Va., was shot and killed yesterday at Montgomery by Ed Jackson, brother of Constable W. A. Jackson, who was killed Wednesday by John Ellicott. The trouble grew out of the killing of Jackson.

Former President Grover Cleveland went on his first hunting trip of the season yesterday in company with Dr. Carlton Priest and W. B. McFarland. The shooting was good and the party returned before dark with sixteen quail and seven rabbits.

The National Bank of Commerce, New York city, has shipped two million dollars gold coin to Cuba for account of the Speyer loan to that country. The National City Bank will make a shipment of like amount for the same account on Saturday.

Preliminary returns to the chief of the bureau of statistics of the Department of Agriculture on the production of corn in 1904, indicate a total yield of about 2,453,000,000 bushels on an average of 26.7 bushels per acre, as compared with an average yield of 25.5 bushels per acre in 1903.

The sixth attempt within a few weeks to wreck train No. 1 on the Baltimore and Ohio railway was made Monday night near Kernstown, Va. The train collided with a pile of crossties, and was only saved from derailment by the ties not being secured. A determined effort is being made to run down the would-be wreckers.

TAMMANY NOT DISAFFECTED.

Leader Murphy Says They Worked Loyally for the Whole Ticket and Did Wonderfully Well.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Governor Odell, chairman of the Republican State committee, and Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, expressed themselves on the election results to-day, each finding cause for gratification. Governor Odell expressed his gratification over the result in New York, particularly in this city. He was asked: "Do you think it was the heavy vote for Roosevelt that pulled Higgins through?"

"No, I would not put it that way," he replied. "I will say that Mr. Roosevelt received a larger vote than I expected but while he undoubtedly helped Mr. Higgins, I think the latter got the full Republican vote."

Mr. Murphy in an interview said:

"There was absolutely no disaffection in Tammany. There is no disaffection and there will be no such a make-up in the organization. The leaders to a man worked diligently and loyally for the whole ticket. Considering the proportions of the landslide Tammany did wonderfully well. Manhattan and the Bronx give Parker a much larger plurality than Bryan got four years ago. Bryan received about 8,000 in the two boroughs, whereas Parker gets more than 35,000. This is better than other parts of the country did.

This shows that there was absolutely no knifing of the national ticket. A comparison with the returns here with those in other parts of the country proves it. The reports made to me by the district leaders were very accurate."

THE RESULT IN MARYLAND.

Vote Very Close—It Will Take Official Count to Decide Whether the State is in Republican Column or Not.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—After election interest was to-day suddenly centered upon Maryland, by the announcement that that State, yesterday conceded to the Republicans, is now in doubt. Late returns have reduced Roosevelt's plurality to the narrow figure of 126 and it will take the official count to determine whether Maryland will be placed in the Republican column. There is also a possibility that the State's electoral vote will be divided.

Beyond the situation in Maryland and the fact that it is now admitted that Roosevelt carried Missouri, in which State the legislature is also Republican, to-day's election news is devoid of feature.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10.—The official returns received here up to a late hour to-night indicate that the vote for the presidential candidates last Tuesday was very close—possibly 100 on either side. It is probable that Secretary of State Oswald Tilghman will be called upon to decide which of the electors will be entitled to cast their votes in Washington.

The board of canvassers in Baltimore city and in the twenty-three counties of the State met at noon today. In Baltimore city the votes for the congressional district were counted, but the totals were not made public. While Congressman Frank Wachter was admitted re-elected the vote on the presidential ticket is left in doubt.

From the official returns thus far received the indications are that the Republicans have elected seven and the Democrats one of the electors of the State.

Returns received from eleven counties of the State give the Republican electors a plurality of 174. Until the canvassing boards of the several counties and of Baltimore city shall have examined and counted the ballots, it will be impossible to say which of the presidential candidates will receive Maryland's electoral vote.

There is no change in the congressional situation, the Democrats and Republicans each having elected three members of the next house of representatives.

JOHN GRIFFITH IN "MACBETH'."

Offering at Academy of Music Saturday Evening is Said to be Good.

In introducing John Griffith as a star in "Macbeth," Manager John M. Hickey has made very generous preparation for a handsome and correct production of this grand play. In supporting company, costumes, illusions, scenery, electric novelties and effects there has been lavish expenditure of money, time and care. Mr. Hickey believes that in this version of "Macbeth" his star has a medium that is even better than was "Faust," the play which most pleasantly introduced John Griffith to the theatre-going public as a bright particular star. "Macbeth" will be presented Saturday night at the Academy of Music. Prices of admission will be 50, 75c, $1 and $1.50. The sale is now on at Plummer's.
